Voluntary Faculty Program | Benefits for Voluntary Faculty

In addition, the following facilities and programs are available to the general public.

Cultural Services

College of Fine Arts Programs

www.uky.edu/FineArts • (859) 257-1707

The college offers well-rounded and expanding programs of public exhibitions and performances presented by student, faculty and guest artists in art, music and theater. These arts events are presented on campus, in the Lexington community and throughout the commonwealth. In addition the college provides special arts programs for the elderly and the handicapped and confined, as well as for public school students, community centers, and many other agencies and organizations.

Department of Art

www.uky.edu/FineArts/Art • (859) 257-8151

Special lectures and programs are offered throughout the year, as well as a full series of exhibitions in two galleries: the Barnhart Gallery and the Center for Contemporary Arts.

School of Music

www.uky.edu/FineArts/Music • (859) 257-4900

A wide variety of musical performances is presented each year, such as student and faculty recitals and concerts by faculty groups and student musical organizations. Individual faculty recitals, faculty ensemble concerts and concerts by student organizations are all open to the public.

Department of theater

www.uky.edu/FineArts/Theatre • (859) 257-3297

A full season of plays usually consists of six to eight different productions, including full-length dramas and short plays. The University of Kentucky Theater also stages informal outdoor performances, Children's Theater productions and other special theater experiences.

Museums
